ZANARDELLI PASSES AWAY

Former Premier Dies at His Villa at Madeno, on Lake Corda.

HAD TUMOR IN HIS STOMACH

Forced by Ill-Health to Resign in October Last With Entire Cabinet.

ROME, Dec. 25.—Former Premier Zanardelli died at his villa at Maderno, on Lake Carda, at 7:30 o'clock this evening.

The news of the former Promier's death, although expected, produced a profound impression here, Rome considering him as one of nor citizens. The King and Queen learned of the death of Signor Zanardelli while they were attending the opening night of the opera season, and immediately left the theatre. High dismistries say that a solemn funeral will be held at the expense of the State.

Guiseppe Zanardelli, who had previously served one term as president of the Chamber in May, 1895, and December 14, 1897, was appointed president of the Council of Ministers, and in April, 1993, he became so seriously III that he fainted as he was leaving the Quirinal after the The news of the former Promier's death, became so seriously in that he marked he was leaving the Quirinal after the tekly consultation of the Premier with e King. He was taken to his home and e doctors said there was nothing alarm-g in his condition. Later he resigned his office.

Early in August last Signor Zanardelli became so ill that his physicians recommended a complete rest, and October 20th, he resigned with his whole Cablindt, owing to ill health, the step being in no way connected with the political situation, though attempts were made to connect the resignation of the Cabinet with the postponement of the Cazar's visit to Rome. A dispatch from Rome last, night announced that the condition of Signor Zanardelli was extremely grave. His doctors made public the fact of the existence of a tumor in the patient's stomach, and added that they had given up all hope of Signor Zanardelli's recovery. This news
